ASPHO Resources

Annual Meeting

ASPHO's Annual Meeting is an invaluable opportunity to connect with the larger pediatric hematology/oncology community. Highlights include the latest developments and recommendations; career mentoring and networking programs; and professional development, education, and certification opportunities.

More than 95% of members surveyed responded that the Annual Meeting helped them better comprehend new information in the field, apply gained knowledge in investigation and practice, and assemble a network of colleagues for professional support and collaboration.

“This remains one of my favorite meetings, where interactions with the speakers and audience are open and engaging.”

– 2015 Annual Meeting attendee

Review Course

ASPHO's Review Course is a multi-day program offering lectures, more than 300 multiple-choice self-assessment questions, and CME credit for each completed lecture. The course is designed for physicians planning to take the American Board of Pediatrics' Program for Maintenance of Certification in the Pediatric Subspecialties.

More than 98% of survey respondents said the Review Course better prepared them for the ABP's hematology/oncology subboard examination and proctored exams aimed at Maintenance of Certification.

Practical Resources for Every Career Phase

- Certification preparation
- Webinar series
- Compensation and benefits survey
- Annual Meeting sessions DVDs

The ASPHO Review Course is a superb educational venue...it is highly effective, comprehensive, and unanimously recommended.”
– 2015 Review Course attendee

“

I have been practicing as a physician assistant in the field of pediatric hematology/oncology since 2010 and have belonged to ASPHO since 2012. ASPHO has been an invaluable source of information and education for me during this time. I have attended the last three annual conferences and have been very impressed by the variety of topics presented and the expertise of the speakers...I encourage all advanced practice providers to become members of ASPHO and take advantage of the opportunities for learning offered by this incredible group!”

– Lesley Arland, physician assistant-certified

Outstanding presentation, very comprehensive, with clear and cutting-edge data. I especially appreciated the treatment pearls.”
